Date of order: - 26.4.2006

HON'BLE MR. PRAKASH TATIA, J.

The application has been submitted by the respondent on 19.1.2006 stating therein that the legal representative of the appellant Heera Lal sold the property to the respondent by registered sale-deed on 20.6.2003, certified copy of which has been placed on record as Annx.A.1. A consent letter was also executed by the family members of Karan Singh, who was taken on record as legal representative of the appellant. The original consent letter executed on stamp-paper of Rs.100/- dated 9.8.2004 is also placed along with the application. The respondent prayed that in view of the subsequent event, no dispute survives and the appeal may be disposed of.

Since the application has been submitted stating therein that the property has been purchased by the respondent, therefore, the appeal has become infructuous. Hence the appeal of the appellant is dismissed as infructuous.
